Define Your Path.

At Baird, we believe our strongest asset is our people. Their unique backgrounds, perspectives and experiences not only inform how we serve our clients – they enhance our culture. We work hard to provide our team members with an environment where they can contribute their personal best and thrive in their careers.

A Unique Opportunity

Aspire to Baird is a one-day program for rising first-year MBA students who identify themselves as female, LGBT and/or African American, Hispanic/Latino, Native American, or Pacific Islander. The program will provide an overview of Baird's Global Investment Banking platform, our summer associate internship opportunities, an interactive deal simulation, as well as panel discussions and networking opportunities with Baird bankers.

Competitive candidates will be first-year MBA students beginning their MBA program in fall 2016; available for a 2017 summer associate internship at Baird; and interested in working in Milwaukee or Chicago for the duration of the internship.
